DSL 042 United States History IA

- access the societies and empires that contributed to the peopling of the Americas from 1200 B.C. through the original 13 Colonies;
- determine the causes that led to the War for Independence, and appraise the conditions and situations that shaped, built, and launched a new nation;
- summarize the causes an effects of the Civil War and its aftermath;
- analyze and determine the components of the new Industrial Age, changes on the Western frontier, and the effects immigration and urbanization had on the new emerging American society;
- describe and evaluate scientific, educational, cultural, and political changes and advancements in the life in the Unites States at the turn of the 20th century.