Glendale Community College has seen many changes over the years. From the library in 1997, the new Bookstore and Student Center in 2000, to the dedication of the GCC Community Science Education Center in 2003, each change has brought a new look to the campus.

Our new 48-seat planetarium boasts state of the art equipment such as Sky-Skan's digitized projection systems, SkyVision High Definition Full Dome Video and real time Digital Sky.

Join us for a tour of the campus and see the exciting changes for yourself! Indicate on the membership application that you are interested in coming for a tour, and you will be contacted for the next available date.

Join us today!

History

In 1987 a group of enthusiastic former students and friends of Glendale Community College launched a community-wide campaign with a theme entitled, "Glendale College Alumni and Friends – Where are You?" The result of this campaign was the beginning of the Glendale Community College Alumni Association. An executive board was formed, and the alumni association became a reality.

Members enjoy many yearly activities including an open house, homecoming, college anniversary celebrations, sporting events, GCC theater productions, and the honors and awards banquet.

Newsletter

Become a member of the Alumni Association and keep up to date on the events at GCC. We publish our own newsletter, which highlights various campus activities and spotlights alumni members.

Scholarships

The GCC Alumni Association is proud to sponsor a number of scholarships, which are given to deserving students each year at the Awards Banquet. Join our organization and experience for yourself the thrill of selecting the recipients and seeing the excitement and joy as they are recognized at the annual Awards Banquet.

Awards Banquet

Each spring the Alumni Association holds its annual Awards Banquet, where the Raymond D. Edwards Award of Merit for career achievement and the J. Walter Smith Service Award for Distinguished Service to Glendale Community College are presented. We also honor the President of the Patrons Club each year with the presentation of the Presidential Award. In addition to these prestigious awards, a number of Glendale Community College students are presented with scholarships awarded for academic excellence.
