

Are you taking English 101 in Fall 2010?

Want help with your research paper?

Take LIB 191 with ENGL 101

LIB 191 is a 2-unit, transferrable course in which you'll learn how to do college-level research. More benefits to taking LIB 191:

- Learn tricks, tips and techniques to better searching
- Impress your employer with advanced research skills beyond Googling and Wikipedia
- Get a handle on citing your sources
- Increase your chances of success after you transfer to a university
- Make research fun

Library 191 Sections for Fall 2010

Ticket #3420	T 10:45–11:50 am hybrid	Instructor: Susie Chin
	This class meets on campus, face-to-face on Tuesdays from 10:45 am-11:50 am and also online. HOWEVER, the first 3 Thursday sessions (9/2, 9/9, 9/16) will also be held on campus and face-to-face from 10:45 am-11:35 am in LB313.
	BEFORE registering for this course, complete an online assessment at: www.glendale.edu/online/studentcenter/gcc_online_student_self_evaluation.htm
Ticket #3421	Th 6:25–8:30 pm	Instructor: Pat Sullivan
Ticket #3422	M 10:45-11:50 am W 10:45-11:35 am	Instructor: Nancy Getty

Actual comments from students who took Library 191:

- "I had so much fun in this class that I didn't even realize I was learning stuff the whole time."
- "The class is awesome. . .The class basically leads you to success. A great help for English 101."
- "It provides you with all the tools to use in a research paper, both in the library and on the computer."
- "3 words: best class ever."

Questions?

Contact: Susie Chin
schin@glendale.edu • 818-240-1000 x5759

OR Vivian Darakjian
vdarak@glendale.edu • 818-240-1000 x5574