

Are you taking English 101 in Spring 2010?
-or another course that requires a research assignment?

Want help with your research paper?

Take LIB 191! with ENG101!

LIB 191 is a 2-unit, transferrable course in which you'll learn how to do college-level research. More benefits to taking LIB 191:

- Learn tricks, tips and techniques to better searching
- Impress your employer with advanced research skills beyond Googling and Wikipedia
- Get a handle on citing your sources
- Increase your chances of success after you transfer to a university
- Make research fun

Library 191 Sections for Spring 2010

Ticket # 4303	MW 10:45–11:46am hybrid	Instructor: Susie Chin
Ticket # 4304	TTh 12:00–1:01pm	Instructor: Pat Sullivan
Ticket # 8126	Th 6:30–8:42pm	Instructor: Pat Sullivan

Actual comments from students who took Library 191:

- "I had so much fun in this class that I didn't even realize I was learning stuff the whole time."
- "The class is awesome. . .The class basically leads you to success. A great help for English 101."
- "It provides you with all the tools to use in a research paper, both in the library and on the computer."
- "3 words: best class ever."

Questions?

Contact: Susie Chin
schin@glendale.edu • 818-240-1000 x5759

OR

Vivian Darakjian
vdarak@glendale.edu • 818-240-1000 x5574