Join Glendale Community College faculty members Dennis Doyle, John Queen, and Elizabeth Kronbeck as they lead students across Ireland and England. Classes offered include European Immigrants in the US (ETHS 111), Contemporary World Problems (POLS 110), and an English Field Studies course (ENG 048). You will stay at historic Trinity College in the heart of Dublin giving you plenty of opportunity to explore this bustling city which provides a great contrast of history and contemporary Irish culture. Next, you will venture to the storied shores of western Ireland and stay for one week at the National University of Ireland located in the coastal town of Galway. From here its just a short hop to the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher, the Aran Islands, and Connemara. You will then depart for Oxford University in England, where you will stay for the remainder of the program. There will be plenty of time to enjoy this university town, home to thirty-eight colleges, and sites in the region including Bath, Stratford Upon Avon, the villages of the Cotswolds, Stonehenge, and a short train or bus ride to London.
