

Political Science Careers

Occupations related to Political Science include:

Broadcast Journalist	Anthropologist	Campaign Worker
Chamber of Commerce Manager	City Manager	Diplomat
Editor	Educator	FBI / CIA Agent
Foreign Service Officer	Geographer	Government Worker
Hospital Administrator	Judge	Labor Relations Specialist
Lawyer	Lobbyist	Mayor
Military Officer	News Reporter	Parole/Probation Officer
Penologist	Politician	Political Consultant
Political Scientist	Public Recreation Director	Public Health Official
Research Assistant	School Administrator	Survey Worker
Technical Writer	Urban Planner

Skills and interests that could contribute to a career in political science:

- Ability to communicate ideas to others
- Ability to relate to people from varying backgrounds
- Ability to organize and interpret social, economic, and political data
- Understanding of and sensitivity to community needs

Activities that could help you decide if you are interested in a career political science:

- Attend political rallies and lectures
- Volunteer for a candidate or political party
- Join a debate team or Model United Nations Club
- Participate in fund raising, student government, or neighborhood associations

Links to help you explore your future in political science:

American Political Science Association
-publications are available from their website!

Association for Public Policy and Management

Washington Post's Federal Job Finder

Career Advice from Eastern Illinois University
-another institution's career advice