Course Entry Expectations

Prior to enrolling in the course, the student should be able to:

- analyze short essays (at least five paragraphs in length) to identify thesis, topic development and concluding sentences, as well as traditional expressions used to increase coherence;
- evaluate compositions for unity, sufficiency of development, and coherence, as well as variety of sentence structure which:
  a. addresses the topic and is directed by a thesis statement;
  b. has an introduction, body, and conclusion and demonstrates a basic understanding of composition organization;
  c. shows some awareness of critical thinking and linkage of evidence with assertion;
  d. develops ideas, moving from general to specific;
  e. is easy to read and follow, though some errors in grammar, mechanics, spelling, or diction may exist;
organize and write a thesis-driven, organized essay which is at least three paragraphs in length (paragraphs should have a topic sentence and at least five additional sentences which further develop that topic sentence with explanations or examples. These sentences must be in logical order and be connected by transitional expressions, where appropriate. Paragraphs must be tied together by appropriate transitions or other devices which provide cohesion);

use in their essays a variety of sentence types with minimal errors in such basics of the sentence as subject-verb agreement, subordination, and complementation.

Course Exit Standards

Upon successful completion of the required coursework, the student will be able to:

- demonstrate understanding and communicate in simple spoken Japanese;
- demonstrate comprehension and reply to classroom directions and for expressing basic needs and simple opinions;
- demonstrate the ability to read and comprehend words and sentences written in hiragana and katakana along with some kanji (about 50 characters);
- write hiragana and katakana syllables, words, and some sentences;
- demonstrate knowledge of fundamental grammatical structures such as basic sentence patterns, non-past and past forms, and affirmative forms;
- use idioms in appropriate context;
- identify basic geography and customs of Japan and important aspects of its culture.
