Course Entry Expectations

Prior to enrolling in the course, the student should be able to:

- analyze short essays (at least five paragraphs in length) to identify thesis, topic development and concluding sentences, as well as traditional expressions used to increase coherence;
- evaluate compositions for unity, sufficiency of development, and coherence, as well as variety of sentence structure which:
  a. addresses the topic and is directed by a thesis statement;
  b. has an introduction, body, and conclusion and demonstrates a basic:
    a. understanding of composition organization;
    b. shows some awareness of critical thinking and linkage of evidence with assertion;
    c. develops ideas, moving from general to specific;
    e. is easy to read and follow, though some errors in grammar, mechanics,
    f. spelling, or diction may exist;
• organize and write a thesis-driven, organized essay which is at least three paragraphs in length (paragraphs should have a topic sentence and at least five additional sentences which further develop that topic sentence with explanations or examples. These sentences must be in logical order and be connected by transitional expressions, where appropriate. Paragraphs must be tied together by appropriate transitions or other devices which provide cohesion.)
• use in their essays a variety of sentence types with minimal errors in such basics of the sentence as subject-verb agreement, subordination, and complementation.

Course Exit Standards

Upon successful completion of the required coursework, the student will be able to:
• relate and discuss insights into Korean culture;
• compare and contrast the structure of the Korean language with his/her own;
• communicate orally and in writing using basic grammatical structures of Korean;
• read and understand basic Korean;
• read and write in basic Korean Alphabet.
